

Michael Dolan joins Eddie this week and together they review the unveiling of the Jock Stein statue. Eddie grudgingly accepts that John Reid is a decent orator and quickly changes the subject. The recording from the ceremony is included and it's quite interesting until you get to the actual unveiling which doesn't really lend itself well to audio. Next the guys discuss the match against Hamilton Accies and acknowledge that it's tough for the players to keep playing at the top of their game after a match against Rangers. Then they move onto discussing the recent meeting which was held with Alex Salmond, they decide that it was a complete waste of time and Eddie manages to refer back to another seventies TV double act in the process. Finally they look ahead to the match against Inverness.
