Michael Dolan joins Eddie this week and together they take a look back at the preseason victory over Perth Glory. They discuss the performance of the team and the merits of certain individuals in the squad. Next they discuss the arrival of Victor Wanyama and whether his arrival means that a midfielder will be leaving. Jay Boothroyd's decision to join QPR is also discussed and

Eddie discusses a rumour regarding potential tax breaks for players designed to rejuvenate the game in Scotland. This in turn leads to a lecture about communism from Michael. Finally the guys look ahead to not only the coming season but also Podcast 145...
