Chris from The Green Brigade joins Eddie this week to discuss the recent events surrounding the fan organisation. They discuss the way the GB are now perceived by the wider fan group and the impact the members of block 111 have made on the atmosphere in the ground. They discuss the song choices of the group and the relationship with the PLC. Chris then discusses the newly formed Fans Against Criminalisation and the campaign against the Offensive Behaviour Bill. He discusses the formation of the group and explains who the folk behind it are before moving on to talk about the demonstration planned for this Saturday in George Square at 12 noon.

The Human Torpedo returns with a tale from the Celtic wiki -"30,000 at Funeral"
